Says the Roanoke Times of yester-day morning:

"One of the prettiest weddings of the season was solemnized Thursday afternoon at the country home of the bride near Hollins, when Miss Daisy Myers, the daughter and Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Myers, and John Taylor, of Richmond, were married. Only the immediate families of the bride and groom were present.

"Promptly at 3:39 o'clock, to the strains of the Wedding March from "Lohengrin," played by Miss Mary Pleasants, accompanied on the violin by Mrs. Rath, of Hollins, the bridal party entered the drawing room. The groom and his best man, John Baker, of Richmond, entered from the right door, while the bride, with her maid of honor, Miss Stella McLaughlin, entered from the opposite side.

"The bride and groom met at an improvised altar of Bermuda Illies festioned with ropes of daisy and tvy. The ceremony was performed by the bride's pastor, D. George Bratter Taylord.

tary cortege filed into the church at the heels of their beloved colonel, only too eager to give him their support and countenance on so momentous an occasion, beside not a little curious as to the denouement.

At the conclusion of the scene. Mrs. G. Otis Mende sang "Constancy" just before the bridal party entered the church. "Lohengrin Wedding March" was played as the bridal party entered the church, and Mendelsshon's as a recessional. During the ceremony "Hearts and Flowers" was rendered very softly by Miss Kathleen Dickey, organist. Mostly Montague, violin obligato, and Rice Chariton, flute. The mald of honor, Miss Jennie Childress, wore white lace over pink messaline, and carried a shower of pink and white sweet peas. The maids, Misses Ann and Harriet Eoff, Fannie James Hall, Ollie Surface, Beatrice Colhoun and Alma Cummings wore exquisite lingeric dresses, binck picture hats with pink roses, and carried pink and white sweet peas. The ushers were Burt Philegar, Aubrey Hawley, John W. Spinele, Willie T. Itall, Charles W. Sumpter, and Gray Mannoni. Master Fred Hall bore the ring on a silver tray.

The bride wore an exquisite gown of margeurite over messaline, with pearl trimming, and her veil was caught with a pearl ornament. She carried a shower of Bride roses and illies of the valley. Extering on the airn of her father, she was met at the altar by the groom with his best man, Hoge Tailant.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Eoff left on the evening train for a trip that will include New York, Washington and Lake George Canada.
